Call for Art: Lancaster Amtrak station public art display

The City of Lancaster's Office of Public Art has issued a Call for Art for site-specific work to be displayed at Lancaster's Amtrak station in 2023. Deadline to submit is this coming Monday, Jan. 9.

Located in the second-busiest train station in the state, the display cases celebrate local artists, creatives, and arts organizations. Finalists will be chosen by a selection committee using a rubric, and then will present their projects to the Public Art Advisory Board for final selection. Three artists will be selected, with each exhibiting for three months. PCA&D-connected artists have been chosen in the past, and it would be exciting to continue that tradition.
