La Borinqueña, by Edgardo Miranda-Rodriguez

Come join us for the opening of Arte de La Borinqueña in PCA&D's Main Gallery

Celebrate being back on campus with a PCA&D gallery opening this week!

PCA&D is excited to welcome Arte de La Borinqueña, the work of Edgardo Miranda-Rodriguez, with an opening reception tomorrow, Tuesday, Jan. 17, from 5-8 pm in the Main Gallery with music, Bomba dancing by Las Bomberos de la Calle, refreshments, and more!

Miranda-Rodriguez is the creator of Puerto Rican superhero La Borinqueña, whose serialized comic amplifies and highlights the importance of telling stories about Puerto Rico's history, exploring present-day social issues and environmental issues, and celebrating the diversity of the Puerto Rican diaspora. La Borinqueña has become a real-life superhero, too, with a suite of graphic novels; a special anthology, Ricanstruction, benefiting grassroots organizations on the islands of Puerto Rico post-Hurricane Maria; partnerships with DC Comics, Chocolate Cortés, the Natural Resources Defense Council; and more.

A full slate of events for both the College community and beyond is planned for the duration of Arte de La Borinqueña, which will be held in the College's Main Gallery through March 10. Stay tuned for more details.

Now in the CoLab: Inspired By, from AHIS110 students

Artworks by Foundation students in Art History 110 are now on display in the CoLab and Landing in Inspired By. For their final projects, each student or group of students was tasked with researching an artist that inspires them, creating a mini exhibition of that artist's work, and creating an artwork inspired by that artist. Works could share the same style, application, media, or subject matter. Don't miss walking through these spaces when you're back on campus to experience Inspired By.
