Foundation hosts Colleen McCubbin Stephanic for artist talk this Wednesday afternoon

The Foundation Department this week welcomes Colleen McCubbin Stephanic for an Artist Talk on Wednesday, Feb. 15, 12:45 pm in the Atrium. Stephanic's work ties in with a project on which all of our 2D students are working at this time, and she'll also visit a 2D class to participate in the assignment.

Stephanic earned a BFA from the University of Dayton and an MFA from Tyler School of Art, has received many grants and awards, and has completed numerous residencies. She's also had 13 solo exhibitions of her work since 2003 and has participated in art projects in Hungary and Cameroon. You can see more of her work here.

Call for Art: Hayden Gallery Reflections

A Call for Art has been issued for a new show in the Hayden Gallery student exhibition space, and the deadline is THIS WEEK on Wednesday, February 15.

Reflections, the new show, will be curated by Joe Palumbo '08 and Randall Lear '11. Works of art in all media are eligible for submission, and you can submit up to three pieces. They do not need to be ready to hang, but must be finished by March 1 (see more below) and video/animation must be fully rendered and ready to show. More about Reflections:

The production of self-portraits has a long tradition in art history. For this exhibition, share these Reflections of yourself with the PCA&D community and the city of Lancaster through the front windows of the Hayden Student Exhibition Space. These artworks may be traditional, conceptual, or abstract self-portraits. Submissions may include works in progress as long as the piece is completed by March 1. The show will run March 3-April 30.

You can find more information about Reflections in a Feb. 7 email from Director of Exhibitions Alex Schaufele.

'REFLECTIONS' CALL FOR ART

CORE Gallery Call for Art: Essential Connection

Students are encouraged to submit their art (up to three works) from all forms of media to the Essential Connection exhibition coming up in the College's CORE Gallery from March 10-31, juried by Kayla Smith '25, Fine Art.

The objective is to explore the relationship (or dramatic difference) between us as humans to nature. Think about these prompts when selecting artwork:

How do you see nature in your everyday life? What is the human experience through the eyes of nature? How do we as humans relate to nature or how different are we? What is your personal connection with nature? Do you ever use nature as a personal escape? Do you experience seasonal depression? As the seasons change, what is your relationship to that?

Work must be submitted using the form linked below. Submissions are due Wednesday, March 1, and work needs to be finished. Video and animation work must be fully rendered and ready to play.

'ESSENTIAL CONNECTION' CALL FOR ART

All-day Career Day trip to Philadelphia March 10

This spring, the College is excited to provide an experiential opportunity for students to explore career pathways that can enhance their potential. Career Day on the Road — set for Friday, March 10 — will be an all-day event to explore career opportunities that are linked to Fashion Merchandising or Art Exhibition career pathways in Philadelphia.

Transportation to Philadelphia will be provided. Please sign up here, and commit only if you are available for the entire day on Friday, March 10.

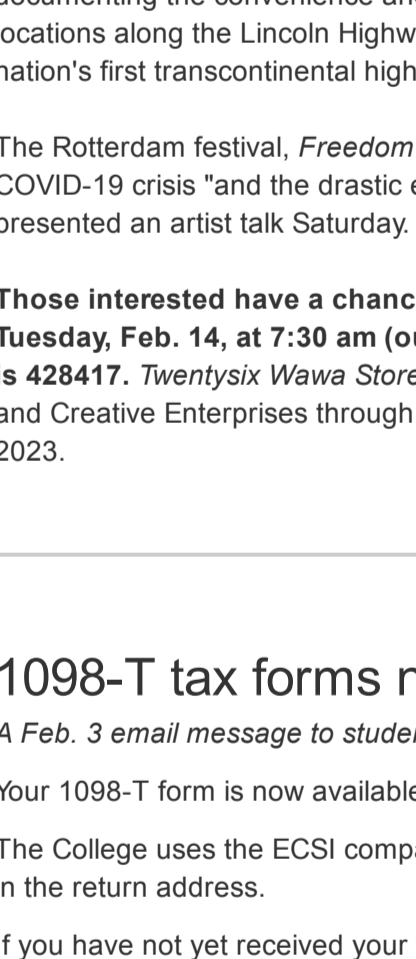

Sign up now: Financial literacy workshop

How should creatives and entrepreneurs handle tax preparation and long-term financial planning? Get a head start on these important topics at an online Financial Literacy workshop Thursday, March 2, at 6 pm.

Financial literacy is important in order to maintain longevity in the creative field, especially for those who aspire to work freelance and own their own business.

Career Services is proud to host Rachel Wood of Virtus Wealth Solutions for a virtual workshop focusing on tax preparation and long-term financial planning for creatives and entrepreneurs.

To attend the workshop, link up March 2 at 6 pm via Google Meet here.

Kaitly Nordhoff

New Student Success Advisor, Katie Nordhoff, joins Student Life team

Welcome to Kaitly Nordhoff (she/her/hers), a trauma-informed advocate and educator who has joined PCA&D as our Student Success Advisor.

Born and raised in Lancaster County, she worked in the field of sexual violence prevention, providing training, technical assistance, and one-on-one support before joining PCA&D. Kaitly enjoys tarot and astrology, bad horror movies, and community building in all its forms.

Alex Schaufele and WITF's Anya Faulcon at La Borinqueña.

WITF visits PCA&D for feature on La Borinqueña

Alex Schaufele, Director of Exhibitions, and Salina Almanzar-Oree, Program Coordinator at the College's Center for Creative Exploration, were interviewed last month by WITF.org, the region's public television outlet, during a visit to Arte de La

Borinqueña in the Main Gallery. The duo talked to Aniya Faulcon, co-host of The Spark, about the impact of the superhero on Puerto Rico, and the far-reaching importance of hosting a show highlighting the impact of artist Edgardo Miranda-Rodriguez's creation. You can watch the 5-minute feature here.

Andrew Brandenburg '23 comes out on top in Super Smash Bros. tournament

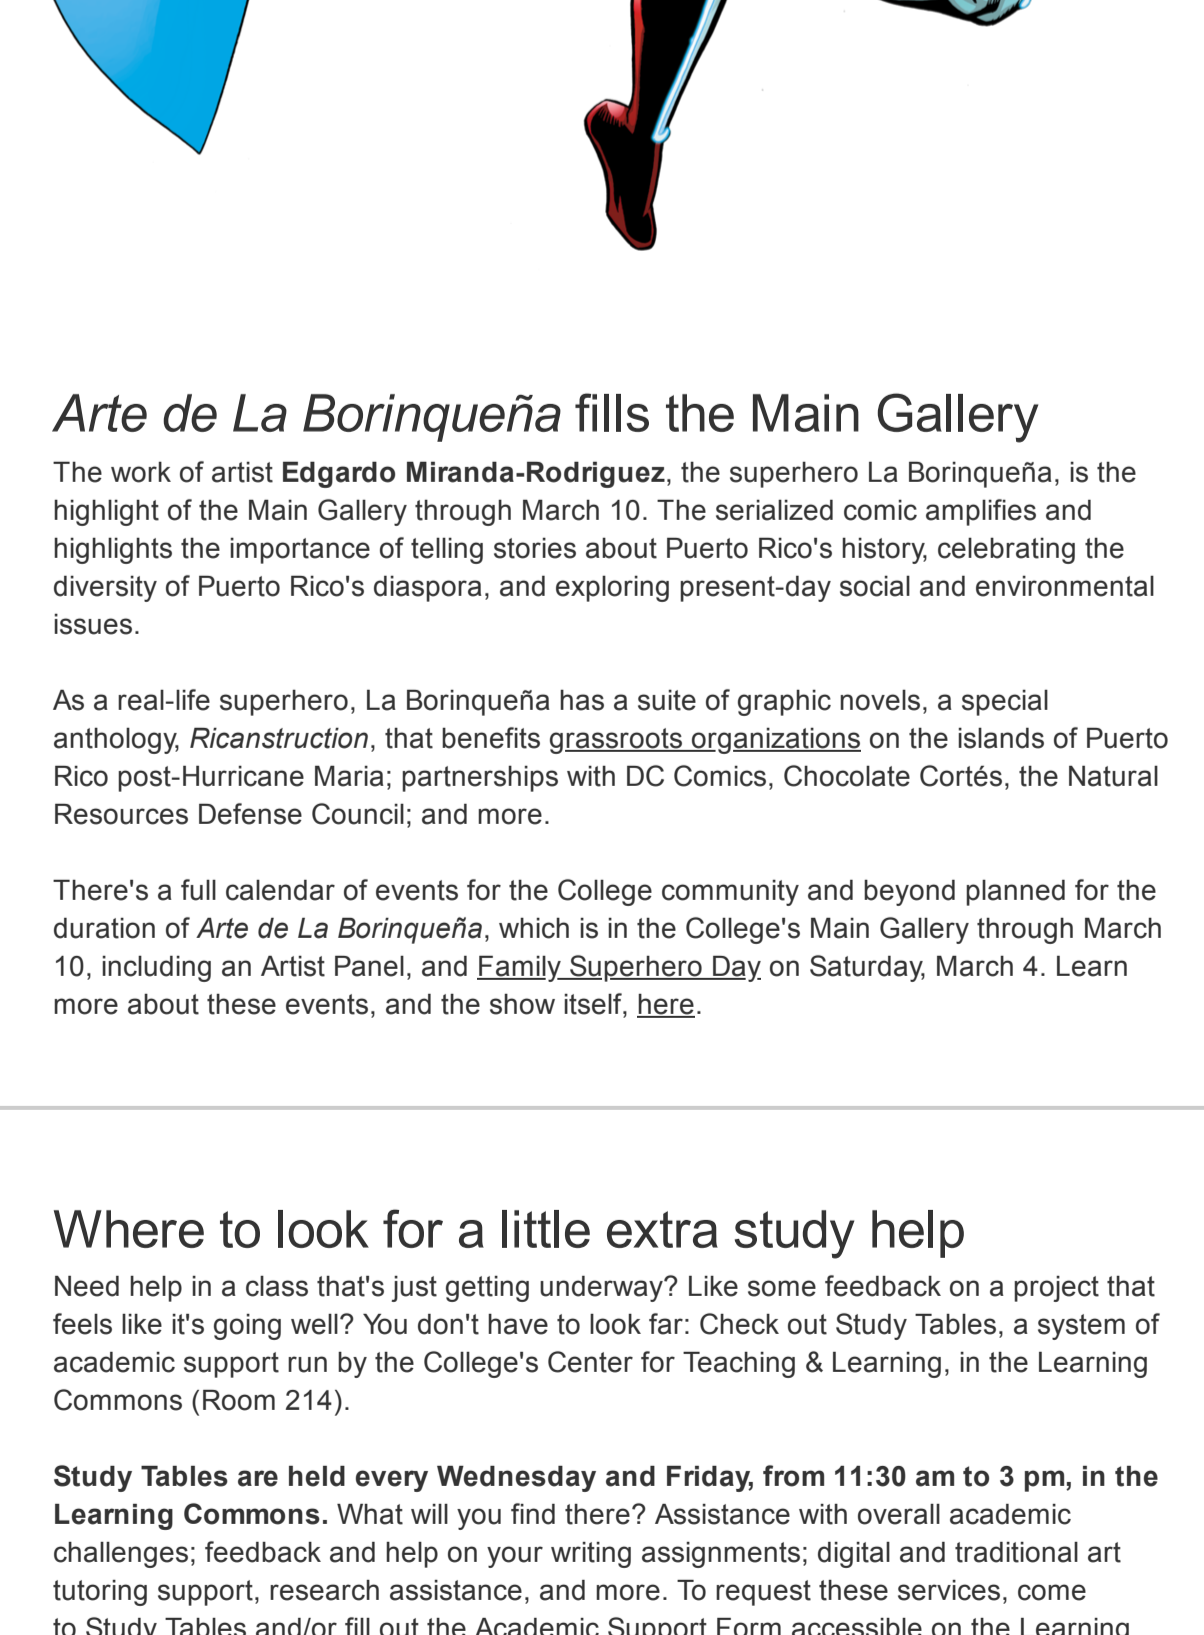

Thanks to the crowd who turned out to cheer and support our dozen Super Smash tournament contestants last week!

After a hard-fought match, Andrew Brandenburg '23, illustration, won first place in the event, sponsored by PCA&D's Esports Team, and received a trophy as well as a $100 Amazon gift card.

Congratulations also to the runner-up, Alex Bojakowski '23, illustration.

PCA&D's CCE program hosting projects for you, too

PCA&D's Center for Creative Exploration, co-host of the party, has several events coming up that are perfect for stretching your creative muscles:

Feb. 19: Check out CCE's Art at Brunch at Zoetropepolis, 112 N. Water St., from 11 am to 2 pm. Projects will be inspired by Mexican Mesoamerican sun and moon plaques. Pay what you wish (and maybe stay and grab some brunch, too!)

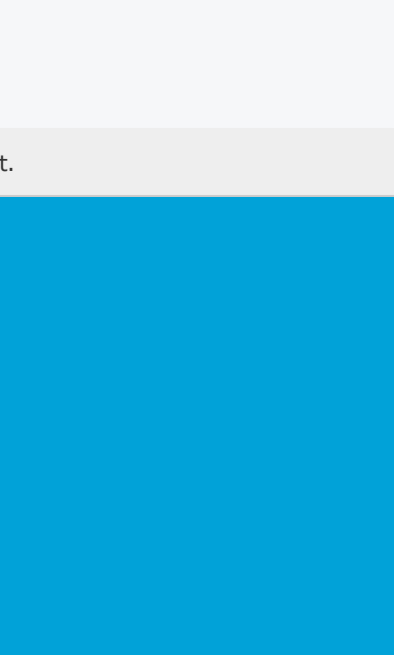

Feb. 24: Art Recess for Adults, 11:30 am to 2 pm, Lancaster Welcome Center, 38 Penn Square.

Weeks' Wawa Store project on exhibition in Abu Dhabi and Rotterdam, Netherlands

Prof. Eric Weeks (Chair, Photography & Video) has work in two international shows, in Rotterdam, the Netherlands, and in Abu Dhabi, United Arab Emirates. His exhibitions feature work from Twenty-six Wawa Stores, a film, print, and artist's book project documenting the convenience and gasoline store's locations along the Lincoln Highway, one of the nation's first transcontinental highways.

The Rotterdam festival, Freedom Redefined, wrapped up Sunday, was inspired by the COVID-19 crisis "and the drastic events of recent times," according to its release. Weeks presented an artist talk Saturday.

Those interested have a chance to virtually attend Weeks' Abu Dhabi artist talk Tuesday, Feb. 14, at 7:30 am (our time). The Zoom link is here, and the passcode is 428417. Twenty-six Wawa Stores is being hosted at Zayed University's College of Arts and Creative Enterprises through Feb. 20 as part of the university's Innovation Calendar 2023.

1098-T tax forms now available

A Feb. 3 email message to students from the Bursar's Office:

Your 1098-T form is now available.

The College uses the ECSI company to process our 1098-T forms, so look for that name in the return address.

If you have not yet received your form in the mail, you may access an electronic copy of the 1098-T statement through the ECSI website (<https://heartland.ecsi.net/>). You will need your First and Last Name, Social Security Number, and the Zip Code that appears on your 1098-T form.

The portal is also a resource for questions related to your statement. If you have any other questions, please contact Disbursement Coordinator Yashira Toro, at ytoro@pcad.edu.

Food pantry is open for Spring semester

The College's food pantry for students has reopened for the Spring semester. It is open to all students, no questions asked.

Where to find the fully stocked pantry? It's a beige two-door cabinet, located next to the Quiet Room in the CoLab. Shopping bags are stored to the left of the pantry. You'll find staples like canned soups and other ready-to-heat items, breakfast foods, pasta and sauce, potatoes, even personal care items like toothbrushes.

Another resource to check out: Lancaster Central Market's After-Market program, which allows the public to select produce and prepared items that are near the end of their shelf life, free of charge. The program operates from 2:45-3:15 pm Tuesdays and Saturdays at the market, which is just off the center square — Penn Square — in Lancaster city, just a few blocks from campus. Bring your own bags, and select 3 to 5 items at first, returning to end of the line if you'd like to select more in a second turn.

Arte de La Borinqueña fills the Main Gallery

The work of artist Edgardo Miranda-Rodriguez, the superhero La Borinqueña, is the highlight of the Main Gallery through March 10. The serialized comic amplifies and highlights the importance of telling stories about Puerto Rico's history, celebrating the diversity of Puerto Rico's diaspora, and exploring present-day social and environmental issues.

As a real-life superhero, La Borinqueña has a suite of graphic novels, a special anthology, Ricanstruction, that benefits grassroots organizations on the islands of Puerto Rico post-Hurricane Maria; partnerships with DC Comics, Chocolate Cortés, the Natural Resources Defense Council; and more.

There's a full calendar of events for the College community and beyond planned for the duration of Arte de La Borinqueña, which is in the College's Main Gallery through March 10, including an Artist Panel, and Family Superhero Day on Saturday, March 4. Learn more about these events, and the show itself, here.

Where to look for a little extra study help

Need help in a class that's just getting underway? Like some feedback on a project that feels like it's going well? You don't have to look far. Check out Study Tables, a system of academic support run by the College's Center for Teaching & Learning, in the Learning Commons (Room 214).

Study Tables are held every Wednesday and Friday, from 11:30 am to 3 pm, in the Learning Commons. What will you find there? Assistance with overall academic challenges; feedback and help on your writing assignments; digital and traditional art tutoring support, research assistance, and more. To request these services, come to Study Tables and/or fill out the Academic Support Form accessible on the Learning Commons webpage and here.

Study Tables aren't your only resource! You can reach out to the following people for specific guidance and Studio Mentoring Tutoring by appointment:

Digital Art, Daniel Cardona (danielcardona@pcad.edu)

Traditional (drawing and painting), Jason Ward (jward@pcad.edu)

Faculty Studio Mentor, Photography & Video, Ashley Moog Bowlsbey (amoo@pcad.edu), available both in person and online (open to all who need help with printing or photography techniques). To access her help, fill out the reservation form here and enter your name on the Mentor Meeting Calendar here.

Your web resource: The Student Portal

The College's Student Portal website provides links to some of the most-needed information. You can find this link to the Student Portal at the very bottom right corner of the homepage at PCAD.edu.

There, you'll find official College dates, such as holidays; class times; research links; links to academic support and counseling help, current Covid-19 policies, and much more.
