PCA&D-York opens for First Friday exhibition, Agency

Pennsylvania College of Art & Design is pleased to celebrate First Friday on August 4 by opening its York pop-up location to the public. Representatives from the student-run Agency will be on hand to display and explain branding work completed this summer for five York non-profits. An exhibition of book cover art, 'Inside the Cover', will also be on display. The event at PCA&D-York, 133 S. Duke St., York, will run from 5-8 pm.

The Agency

PCA&D's Agency is a student-led organization that this summer performed branding and design work on behalf of five York-area non-profits: Appell Center for the Performing Arts, Horn Farm Center, Keystone Kidspace, Ophelia's Making Agency, and York Art Association. On Aug. 4, representatives of The Agency will walk visitors through the creative process, answer questions, and present the final results of their summerlong work.

'Inside the Cover'

This exhibition features the work of three artists, whose art has been featured on the covers of numerous children's books. Bill Dussinger, Amber Kane, and Matt Novak are featured in Inside the Cover, which showcases the collaborative nature of creating a children's book, and the various methods that can be used to illustrate a story. Inside the Cover debuted this spring at Garden Spot Village in New Holland, Lancaster County. It moved to PCA&D-York for the summer exhibition season.

Fall Colloquium info for August 7-8

Hard to believe, but Fall Colloquium will be upon us in just a few weeks.

Faculty and staff received an email from Linda King Brown, Dean of Faculty & Academic Affairs, on July 11. The email outlined the dates for the event (Monday and Tuesday, Aug. 7 and 8), the location (4th-floor LookOut), time, and attendance requirements, and links via Google Form to a basic schedule for each day.

Spring House Brewing Call for Art

To submit artwork for consideration, email images of up to five pieces (.jpg and .pdf preferred) along with your name, phone number, and city/state, to springhousebeer.art@mail.com. Deadline for submissions is Sept. 15, with winning artists announced Oct. 1. Find an FAQ on the contest here.

CCE Summer Camps

Summer is the time our youngest students fill the building with a plethora of camp experiences throughout the next several weeks through the College's Center for Creative Exploration's summer sessions. Be aware that registration and check-in activities will be held in the lobby and Atrium.

Faculty and staff can enjoy the work of these students at the end of each session week as the Atrium will be filled with gallery exhibition each Friday morning and afternoon. (If you have borrowed a moveable wall, be sure to return it to the Atrium to ensure there's plenty of exhibition space for these students.)

Art at Brunch: Make your own awards!

Join CCE on Aug. 13, 11 am to 2 pm for Art at Brunch at Zoetropolis Cinema and Stillhouse, 112 N. Water St. — and build your own awards :) CCE will be digging deep into their supplies and making trophies, certificates, and medals to honor whatever or whomever you'd like to celebrate.

No registration is required, though reservations with Zoetropolis are strongly suggested if you plan to brunch. Suggested $5 donation, but pay what you feel.

Hayden Gallery featuring work by alumni

Palumbo and Lear, in Creative Contributions

Now in the College's Hayden Gallery: Creative Contributions, artwork by alumni Randall Lear '11 and Joe Palumbo '08, artists who served as alumni jurors for student artwork exhibitions in the Hayden Gallery during the 2022-23 school year. Creative Contributions will be open through the end of August.

Palumbo, Director of Grandview Gallery in West Lawn, Pa., is a fantasy illustrator whose work has appeared on comic book covers, graphic novels, and magazines, and is exhibited in galleries and private collections. Lear, a Fine Art Adjunct Instructor at PCA&D and instructor at other institutions, earned his MFA from American University and has exhibited widely along the East Coast. We're thrilled to welcome back the work by these two artists and alumni!
