2024 Commencement will be livestreamed

Admission to the 2024 Commencement is by ticket only. If you would like to see the Class of 2024's graduation ceremonies and do not have a ticket -- the ceremony will be livestreamed. Link here this Friday at 10 am, and watch the live stream.

Two important notes for the Class of 2024

Please remember these important details for two events THIS WEEK, the Beret Ceremony, and your Commencement (graduation) exercises:

Beret Ceremony

Thursday, May 2 from 5-6:30 pm

The LookOut

Enjoy a special evening with your peers and select faculty and staff that includes a delicious buffet, brief remarks, and the distribution of your berets followed by the opportunity to view the Senior Show Exhibition. This PCA&D tradition is only open to the graduating class (no guests) and business casual dress is suggested.

Commencement Exercises

Friday, May 3 at 10 am

Barshinger Center for Musical Arts

620 College Ave.

The invitations you received at the Countdown to Commencement event were meant as a keepsake. The four tickets you received are for family members or friends to attend this ceremony. A limited number of extra tickets are available upon request. See Amy Gaston, executive assistant to the president, in Room 109 on the mezzanine.

Share feedback with in survey

If you were unable to attend the feedback session on April 1 — or if you would like to share ideas or provide additional suggestions — a survey has been created to collect any input you may want to share. Suggestions and insights shared at the April 1 event, sponsored by Student Council, already have been shared anonymously with the entire senior leadership team.

Please use the link below to share your ideas, and ensure PCA&D remains a vibrant and thriving community. All suggestions are being collected anonymously.

Live in PCA&D housing? Important news:

If you live in PCA&D-sponsored housing, check your email from the College listing details for your check-out dates and directions! In the meantime, here are some basics:

Dates: Foundation/Sophomores/Juniors Final Move-out Day 8 am to 8 pm TODAY, April 29.

Dates: Senior Move-out Day 8 am to 8 pm May 6

Keys: Key Collection for Steinman/Walnut/North Market (Campus Housing Office)

Keys: Key Collection for Seminary/Roost/Crest (Seminary-Harner 303)

Helpful Information for Move-out:

- Prepare for your move-out date by collaborating with your roommates to divide tasks such as sweeping, mopping, and trash removal.
- If you have any unopened food items or personal belongings you no longer need, please notify your Community Advisor (CA) at least 24 hours before your move-out day. We are working with the P3 Foundation to donate these items to communities that can benefit from these donations.
- If you require move-out assistance or have any questions, please don't hesitate to contact your CA.

Returning students: Important info for PCA&D housing

Are you planning to apply to live in PCA&D-sponsored housing next academic year? Here are a couple important tips to remember:

1. Select a Roommate(s): Discuss and coordinate with potential roommates. Finding compatible roommates can enhance your living experience, so take the time to communicate and make arrangements together.
2. Clear Any Holds on your Account: Ensure there are no holds on your student accounts that could impact your ability to participate in the room selection process. If you have any holds, please address them promptly with Bursar Elliud Diaz.
3. Keep an Eye on Your Email: Look for an email containing the housing application. This email will contain detailed instructions on the room selection process.

While the College finalizes room selection details, please contact your CA or Michael LS Parks, Director of Housing & Residence Life, with any questions.

Maddie Reynolds-designed logo adopted by Stormers

When the Lancaster Stormers baseball team takes the field for opening day this week, a little piece of PCA&D also makes its lineup debut.

A new ballcap design, created by Graphic Design junior Maddie Reynolds, will go on sale in the team's store.

"I was looking at what younger generations are into, and also wanted to pull in a vintage feel," said Reynolds, a native of Parkesburg, Pa. Her end result, a curved "Stormers" text superimposed over an outline of homeplate, carries over that simple, but vintage, vibe.

Five junior-year finalists from Prof. Pam Barby's Graphic Design class — Warren Burke, Bahir Harris, Aiyana Alvarado, and Leslie Bosch, along with Reynolds — were selected, and Reynolds' design was chosen by a public vote on social media.

Work by Gabriel Barreto Bentin fills Main Gallery

The Main Gallery welcomes the arrival of Andinos: Encounters in Cusco, Peru, the works of Gabriel Barreto Bentin, a New York City-based Peruvian fashion and portrait photographer. His work will be shown in the Main Gallery through June 7.

The artist, who also visited the College in 2022, recently published his debut photo book, by the same name as his PCA&D exhibition, through Rizzoli Books. In collaboration with Peruvian anthropologist Francesco D'Angelo, the work "offers an intimate portrait of the Andean society of Cusco, Peru. This socio-anthropological, photographic study offers a unique perspective on the Andino people..." Check out more of his work on Instagram.

Alex Eggleston and Jasmyn Stokes wrap up Career Development Fellowships with shows

New exhibitions arrived in the Hayden and CORE galleries Friday with opening receptions. The shows feature the work of PCA&D's inaugural Career Development Fellows, Alex Eggleston '23, Photography & Video, and Jasmyn Stokes '23, Illustration.

Eggleston's exhibition, True Americana, a collection of 13 works, is featured in the CORE Gallery, Mezzanine level. Work by Stokes, The World Where Mind and Reality Split, hangs in the Hayden Gallery.

The exhibitions also will be open to the public during the Senior Show weekend, and will be on display through June 30.

To learn more about their Career Development Fellowship experiences, check out PCA&D News on the website. Applications are now being accepted for the 2024-2025 academic year for the Classes of 2023 and 2024, and you can find that application here.

CCE & Exhibitions partner on Amtrak display case art project; here's how to participate

PCA&D's Exhibitions Department and Center for Creative Exploration have teamed up with support from the City of Lancaster Office of Public Art to host an opportunity for the Lancaster community to showcase their visual response to the prompt "Creativity is..." in an exhibition that will be installed at the Lancaster Amtrak station in two of the public art cases from Aug. 9 through Nov. 14. The hope is to engage Amtrak station visitors and travelers through this collaborative installation that will involve the creation of artwork.

From April through July 29, community partners, PCA&D students and faculty, and Lancaster community members are invited to join a workshop, an event, or visit partner curio. Gallery & Creative Supply on West Chestnut Street to pick up a 6-inch-by-6-inch canvas panel to create their response to the prompt. Names of artists will be included on signage in the station cases.
