PCA&D launches new minor/certificate

The College is excited to announce a new minor/certificate program: Project Management. This fall, PM 101 Introduction to Project Management will be held online Monday evenings from 5:30-8 pm. The full list of classes includes:

- BUS 101: Introduction to Business I
- BUS 102: Introduction to Business II
- BUS 203: Understanding Users
- PM 101: Introduction to Project Management
- PM 200: Project Leadership & Strategy
- PM 300: Project Management for Corporate Social Responsibility

18 credit hours

Completing a minor concentration in Project Management enhances art and design skills developed in a student's major by providing the theory, structure, and skills necessary for working collaboratively with others on future projects serving a diverse number of internal and external stakeholders. These creative projects may also be ones conducted by an individual artist alone.

Toon Boom recognizes Connie Saunders' work

Congratulations to Connie Saunders '26, Animation & Game Art, on being included in Toon Boom's 2024 Educational Showreel. Every year, Toon Boom gathers clips from students' and educators' personal and academic projects. This showreel demonstrates the exceptional technical proficiency and creativity of the students. Each clip exhibits a high level of animation quality, with fluid movement, dynamic effects, and expressive character designs. This showreel highlights an impressive collection of animated shorts created by students and educators using Toon Boom Harmony and Storyboard Pro. You will find Saunders's scene at: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3BoCZolsoxs&t=53s>

Work by Gabriel Barreto Bentin fills Main Gallery

The Main Gallery welcomes the arrival of Andinos: Encounters in Cusco, Peru, the works of Gabriel Barreto Bentin, a New York City-based Peruvian fashion and portrait photographer. His work will be shown in the Main Gallery through June 7.

The artist, who also visited the College in 2022, recently published his debut photo book, by the same name as his PCA&D exhibition, through Rizzoli Books. In collaboration with Peruvian anthropologist Francesco D'Angelo, the work "offers an intimate portrait of the Andean society of Cusco, Peru. This socio-anthropological, photographic study offers a unique perspective on the Andino people..." Check out more of his work on Instagram.

Alex Eggleston and Jasmyn Stokes wrap up Career Development Fellowships with shows

Exhibitions in the Hayden and CORE galleries feature the work of PCA&D's inaugural Career Development Fellows, Alex Eggleston '23, Photography & Video, and Jasmyn Stokes '23, Illustration.

Eggleston's exhibition, True Americana, a collection of 13 works, is featured in the CORE Gallery, Mezzanine level. Work by Stokes, The World Where Mind and Reality Split, hangs in the Hayden Gallery.

The exhibitions will be on display through June 30.

To learn more about their Career Development Fellowship experiences, check out PCA&D News on the website.

CCE & Exhibitions partner on Amtrak display case art project; here's how to participate

PCA&D's Exhibitions Department and Center for Creative Exploration have teamed up with support from the City of Lancaster Office of Public Art to host an opportunity for the Lancaster community to showcase their visual response to the prompt "Creativity is..." in an exhibition that will be installed at the Lancaster Amtrak station in two of the public art cases from Aug. 9 through Nov. 14. The hope is to engage Amtrak station visitors and travelers through this collaborative installation that will involve the creation of artwork.

Now through July 29, community partners, PCA&D students and faculty, and Lancaster community members are invited to join a workshop, an event, or visit partner curio. Gallery & Creative Supply on West Chestnut Street to pick up a 6-inch-by-6-inch canvas panel to create their response to the prompt. Names of artists will be included on signage in the station cases.
