Alumni Call for Art: Then & Now

Have you ever wondered what happens to an artist who graduates from an art school? What does their work look like, 5, 10, 15, 25, 40+ years later? Well, so do we. That's why PCA&D is calling all our PCA&D, PSA&D, and PSA alumni from 2020 or earlier to share their work in Then & Now.

This exhibition is an opportunity to show where you started and what you're doing now. Submit a recent work and an image (or, if you still have it, an original piece) from your time at the College. Whether you were with us in York, Marietta, or Lancaster, we want to see what you've been up to since. No limit on media or size (besides being able to get it through the doors).

Fill out this application form here. Applications are due Aug. 1 at 11:59 pm.

Notification of Acceptance will be Aug. 29. Exhibition dates: Oct. 24 through Dec. 12, with a Reception held Nov. 7 for First Friday.

The works are a formalist exploration into the juxtaposition of processes that merge from saturation and folding of paper and intuitive mark making. These various methods work together to create subtle works that reflect moments of time captured in a multitude of ways.
