PCA&D Artist Residency: Applications are open

Monday, June 30, is the deadline to apply for the Pennsylvania College of Art & Design Fine Art Alumni Artist Residency -- open to ALL alumni who are graduates of a BFA program at PCA&D and have a developing studio practice. This opportunity, offered through the Fine Art Department, provides time and space for a studio artist to continue developing their work and engage with a supportive community at PCA&D. The Alumni Artist in Residence receives a studio space, access to campus facilities, and an exhibition opportunity at the residency's close. This residency program runs throughout the academic year, from the start of classes on Aug. 25, 2025, through April 2026.

Follow this link for more information about the residency.

Go here for application guidelines and links.

If you need help accessing the form, please reach out to Prof. Becky Blosser, at bblosser@pcad.edu.

Bucknell U. hiring P/T photography assistant

Bucknell University is hiring a part-time Photography Assistant in the department of Art & Art History to assist students outside of class with technical and conceptual questions or problems regarding their photographic projects. Guide students in printing photos in the 2D printing room, navigating and using the darkroom for analog photography, and utilizing the lighting studio. Order supplies for student use and keep the photographic studios well-stocked. This one-year position is an excellent stepping-stone for a student who has recently completed undergraduate studies and who is interested in pursuing an MFA in studio art but prefers additional time to develop a stronger portfolio and gain experience. The Art Assistant will have 24/7 access to the photo facilities to work on their own projects. More information and application link here.
