Spring Colloquium set for this Wednesday

Don't forget that the Spring Colloquium for faculty and staff will be held this Wednesday, Jan. 8. The tentative schedule includes Title IX training for faculty (staff will receive training at a later date), as well as remarks and updates from campus leadership. Virtual attendance will be available for remote staff and faculty members (check your email for links), but you're encouraged to attend in person if you're able.

The draft agenda is below:

8:30 am: Coffee and light breakfast; New faculty IDs, parking cards, and keys

9-9:05 am: Welcome

9:05-9:30 am: Remarks by Interim President Audry Carter; Video Greeting by incoming President Dr. Andrew Barnes

9:30-9:45 am: Provost Report: Dr. Carissa Massey

9:45- 10 am: Spring Semester Announcements and Housekeeping

10-11:30 am: Mandatory Title IX training for all faculty

BREAK

1-2:30 pm: Mandatory ALICE active shooter response training for new faculty and all employees who did not complete the training, as well as faculty and staff who would like a refresher. Dan Freiler will hold this guided session in person; faculty and staff can join virtually if need be. A Zoom link will be provided.

Hanging student artwork? Let us know!

We love to celebrate everyone's creativity on campus -- and we want to make sure everyone has a chance to see new work that's being hung on our walls, too! The next time you're putting student work on display -- from a full-blown exhibition to work from a class assignment -- please reach out to communications@pcad.edu so we can share the exhibition campus-wide. Thanks!

Monologues of Being Seen questionnaire

Did you participate in Monologues of Being Seen? Were you scanned, photographed, and part of the show? Please take a moment to answer the questionnaire linked below for the artists!

Volunteer judges sought for exhibitions

PCA&D is excited to partner with the Lancaster Museum of Art to exhibit the 2025 Lancaster County Young Artist and Scholastic Awards this spring. In preparation for the shows, we need three volunteer jurors to assess the Digital Arts submissions.

As an Art Juror, you're asked to commit to a one-day panel on Wednesday, Jan. 15, from 10 am to 12:30 pm. Judging will be done in person at PCA&D. All entries from both Scholastics and LCYA were submitted digitally. Please email Alex Schaufele at aschaufele@pcad.edu if you are interested in participating.

The adjudication process is the core of the recognition programs. Jurors look for works that exemplify the Awards' core values: originality, technical skill, and the emergence of personal voice or vision.

Help spread the word: Designathon deadline

PCA&D's annual Designathon, a 12-hour marathon of free design work, is now open for applications from regional non-profit organizations. During its nearly 20-year history, more than 100 non-profits have benefited from the professional-level logos, branding, website assets, and other branding collateral created by PCA&D art and design students, faculty, and alumni during Designathon. Designathon '25 will be held on Feb. 8, 2025, from 9 am to 9 pm under the guidance of the College's American Institute of Graphic Arts (AIGA) Student Chapter.

Interested in learning more about the process, or how to apply? That information can be found at <https://pcad.edu/designathon-2025>. The deadline for applications is Jan. 12, 2025. Questions can be directed to Maria Hostetter at mhostetter@pcad.edu.

Call for Art: Lancaster Amtrak station

The City of Lancaster Office of Public Art seeks artists to showcase work in two glass-enclosed display cases at the Lancaster Amtrak Train Station. Create site-specific work inspired by or cohesive with the A Place for Every Piece: Lancaster's Living Quilt design.

Artists are encouraged to submit proposals for installations in the glass cases that either draw from or align with that work, by Libby Modern and Jill Good, which will fill windows in the station's main terminal. Proposals should include drawings, sketches, or renderings, along with a written description. While new, site-specific works are preferred, artists may adapt previous artworks, to fit the theme of A Place for Every Piece: Lancaster's Living Quilt.

This call is open to all professional artists and artist teams ages 18 and older. Each selected artist or team will receive a $1,250 honorarium to cover project expenses, including materials, fabrication, and installation.

Submissions are due by Jan. 20. For more details and to view the full call for artists, visit cityoflancasterpa.gov/office-of-public-art.

Learn a new skill: Sign up for a CCE class

Faculty and staff: Check out the slate of classes and workshops offered by the College's Center for Creative Exploration. You can request your employee benefit for discounted CCE classes for yourself as well as for your children or spouses. Email ce@pcad.edu to let them know the class or workshop you're interested in and they can work with you to get you a special code. Also, as educators, you can request scholarships for students in grades 1-12 for CCE classes. If you know a student in our community who would benefit, head here and complete the request form. Questions? Email ce@pcad.edu.

Hear of gig work, part-time or full-time jobs for students and alumni? Let Career Services know

Help fill our Student Portal Job Boards with opportunities for our students and alumni. They can range from gig work to part-time, and even some full-time jobs.

There is a high demand for work opportunities among our student body in both the creative and non-creative sectors.

If you hear any great opportunities please pass them along to the Career Services Team at CareerServices@pcad.edu so we can connect our students to employment opportunities.
