Lancaster Chamber seeking local photos

The Lancaster Chamber is searching for photographers to highlight the spirit of Lancaster County -- dynamic, action-oriented photography that represents the county's diverse people, places, and experiences. Your work will be credited and featured across marketing materials, websites, and campaigns aimed at inspiring people to "Land in Lancaster."

You're encouraged to submit in the following categories:

Community & Connection: Families, friends, and individuals enjoying Lancaster's neighborhoods, parks, and events.

Lifestyle & Leisure: Outdoor activities and visiting local attractions.

Dining, shopping, and nightlife scenes.

Education & Opportunity: College students engaged in campus activities, or young professionals at events.

Heritage & Culture: Showcasing the region's rich history, arts, and diverse cultural celebrations.

Also looking for photos that refer to some key locations, such as Lancaster City, Central Market, Clipper Magazine Stadium, Gallery Row, parks, etc.; the tourist industry; the riverlands spots such as the Susquehanna River; and the city's surrounding countryside.

Submission guidelines:

Images must be high resolution (300 DPI)

Include a brief description (location, activity, and demographics)

Include full-action shots, candid moments, and a variety of subjects and locations.

Selected photos will be credited in campaign materials and featured on the Land in Lancaster website and social media. Submit your photos to media@lancasterchamber.com. Include your name, college, and portfolio url.

Photographers whose work is selected will be contacted by Justin Johnson of the Lancaster Chamber. For questions, contact the Lancaster Chamber at the email above.
