Call for Art: League of Women Voters

The League of Women Voters of Lancaster County will host The Art of the Vote on Nov. 1 at the Ware Center, in downtown Lancaster. There's still space to submit your art for inclusion!

The showcase will feature an art show as well as live performance art in celebration of our right to vote. Pieces should express the spirit of democracy and enthusiasm for civic engagement through voting; as the organization is non-partisan, pieces should not express support or opposition to political parties and should not reference specific candidate names. The Art of the Vote is designed to showcase 2D pieces; addition of mixed media may be added to the primary piece, and the full piece should not exceed 18" by 24". The first 25 submissions will be accepted for display. All artwork should be securely wired and ready to hang via an art hanging system. Entries must include artist name, piece title, medium, and sale price. Indicate your intent to submit using this form.

All pieces must be dropped on Wednesday, Oct. 30 at the Ware Center, 42 N. Prince St., between 6-8 pm. Information: Carolyn Hernandez at Vote411LancasterCounty@gmail.com.
