Judith Joy Ross

Photographer Judith Joy Ross visiting College Oct. 3

Judith Joy Ross, a prominent photographer whose work has been exhibited at MoMA, the Philadelphia Museum of Art, and internationally, is the guest of the Photography & Video Department on Thursday, Oct. 3. Don't miss her presentation, open to the College community and the public, at 12:45 pm that afternoon.

Born in Pennsylvania, Ross still lives in her home state. Her portraiture work, since the 1980s, has focused a large-format camera "as a tool to capture the distilled essence of her brief encounters with a cross-section of the American people, with a focus on those in eastern Pennsylvania" (philamuseum.org).

Daryl Davis

Musician, racial harmony activist Daryl Davis visits campus on October 4

PCA&D's Liberal Arts Department is excited to welcome the College community and the public to the Diverse Voices Speaker Series: The Voice and Music of Daryl Davis Friday, Oct. 4. Davis will speak at 3:30 pm in the Atrium, and perform his award-winning boogie-woogie blues piano music at 6 pm. Both events are free and open to the public and the College community.

Davis is the author of Klan-destine Relationships: A Black Man's Odyssey, and the author and subject of an Independent Lens documentary, Accidental Courtesy: Daryl Davis, Race, & America. The musician and activist has used his music to break down racial barriers, interviewing Ku Klux Klan members, some of whom ended up becoming his close friends and giving him their robes and hoods. Davis also has performed extensively with Chuck Berry, Jerry Lee Lewis, The Legendary Blues Band (formerly The Muddy Waters Blues Band), and Elvis Presley's Jordainaires, along with The Temptations, Little Richard, and B.B. King. Davis runs a podcast, Changing Minds, with diverse guests such as former KKK Imperial Wizard Scott Sheperd, blues guitarist Bob Margolin, and documentary film director and human rights activist Deeyah Khan.

Study Tables: Drop in Monday through Friday

This semester, drop-in sessions for Study Tables will be held every lunch hour Monday through Friday, from 11:30 am to 12:30 pm in the Learning Commons.

What will you find there? Help transitioning to PCA&D's art and design school life and classes; assistance with overall academic challenges; feedback and help on your writing assignments; research assistance, and more. To request these services, come to Study Tables and/or fill out the Academic Support Form. Additional tutoring beyond Study Tables takes place by request, so do not hesitate to reach out through the form.

Stop by any Study Tables session and get pointed in the right direction. Even when you're on top of your game, Study Tables offer a great way to get some real-time

Musicians needed for AGA projects

If you or someone you know creates and produces their own music, please reach out to Matt Novak (Assistant Professor, Animation & Game Art). You can reach him at mnovak@pcad.edu.

The AGA sophomores are beginning work on a music video project and are looking for songs that they can use. This is a great opportunity to have a piece of music turned into something amazing that musicians and animators can use to promote their work!

Work by Karim Gavins '20 in the Main Gallery

The Main Gallery at PCA&D is proud to welcome visitors to Finding Karim, the work of 2023-2024 Fine Artist in Residence Karim Gavins '20, Photography & Video, and the show has been extended to Oct. 6 through Lancaster's ArtWalk Weekend. The show consists of mixed media installation, primarily fabric, archival digital prints, and drawing.

PCA&D offers an Alumni Artist in Residence program in which the participating artist then has an exhibition on the College campus; Gavins completed his residency in May. "The opportunity to present the work of Gavins is exciting," says Director of Exhibitions Alex Schaufele. "It connects our students more closely to a dynamic alumnus and him to the larger community. It also is a style of exhibition that we haven't done recently at PCA&D -- a full-scale immersive installation in multiple levels of the gallery."

Re Union: Works by Rachel Yinger '14

PCA&D is proud to present the work of Rachel Yinger '14 in her exhibition Re Union, in the Hayden Gallery, a collection of Yinger's work from the past 10 years.

A visual artist and curator, Yinger received her BFA in Fine Art from PCA&D in 2014, and an MFA in Socially Engaged Student Art from Moore College of Art & Design in 2018. She works in painting, drawing, printmaking, zine-making, and installation, and primarily creates large paintings and zines exploring themes of gender and sexuality.

How to access 24-7 counseling, support

Feeling a little extra-stressed, or interested in finding a way to bring some professional counseling into your life? PCA&D provides students FREE access to 24-7 counseling through Uwill for a wide variety of topics, from short- and long-term support, to crisis counseling, telehealth for common acute symptoms, and on-demand wellness programming like meditation, mindfulness, nutrition, and yoga. Your student services team sent an email to your PCAC&D Inbox last Tuesday with details on how to access all of this support. And, again, it's free, and you have access to it year round, even during school vacations.

To schedule teletherapy appointments:

- Create a profile with Uwill
- Choose a therapist based on your preferences including availability, issue, gender, language, ethnicity.
- Choose a time that fits your schedule with day, night and weekend availability.

If you need any assistance, you can refer to Uwill FAQ, Student User Guide, or reach out directly to Uwill at support@uwill.com. More questions? Contact Student Services, at studentlife@pcad.edu.

How to access Photo/Video studio mentoring

Adjunct professor Ashley Moog Bowsbey, the Photography & Video Department's Lab Technician and Faculty Studio Mentor, outlines how to access photo- and video-related assistance (and you don't have to be enrolled in a photo course to reach out; sessions are open to all students!). If you need assistance with printing or photography techniques, she is here to help. Here's how to access her help:

Here is a Google document that explains the mentor position. She is available for two hours every week (more if needed), with options for both in-person and online meetings.

This semester in-person sessions will take place on Mondays or Wednesdays from noon to 2 pm, with additional hours available by request. If those days do not work for you she can offer online sessions on other days of the week by advanced request. Alternative time slots should be requested at least 24 hours in advance.

To sign up for a session, please fill out the reservation form. You can see what times are still available each week here: Faculty Studio Mentor Meeting Calendar. If requesting an online session, she will send out an online meeting link after the requested time slot has been approved.

Your web resource: The Student Portal

The College's Student Portal webpage provides links to some of the most-needed information. You can find this link to the Student Portal at the very bottom right corner of the homepage at PCAD.edu.

There, you'll find official College dates, such as holidays; class times; research links; links to academic support and counseling help; and much more.
