

KRISTA CANOLES

Multidisciplinary Artist

410-350-5657

punkdxdy

Lancaster, Pennsylvania

EDUCATION

AA Art & Design

Major in Art and Design; Minor in Psychology

Harford Community College

2019-2022

Bachelor's of Fine Art

Major in Fine Art

Pennsylvania College of Art & Design

2023-2025

EXHIBITIONS

Juried Student Art & Design Exhibition

Harford Community College

2021, 2022

Student Art Gallery Association Exhibition

Solo Exhibition

2022

Essential Connections

Pennsylvania College of Art & Design

2023

Miniatures

Pennsylvania College of Art & Design

2023

As It Is

The Demuth Museum

2024

Birds in Peril

Gallery 220

2025

BIO

Krista is a multidisciplinary artist whose work explores the intersections of psychology and the natural world. Through printmaking, drawing, and sculpture, she investigates how cycles of nature mirror the human experience, particularly how we process trauma, memory, and identity. Holding an Associates of Art & Design with a minor in Psychology and a Bachelor's of Fine Art, Krista plans further her education, pursuing a Master's Degree in Fine Art with ambitions of becoming a College Professor

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Franklin & Marshall College

Art Department

Figure Model

2024 - Present

Figure Model

Freelance

2023 - Present

Harford Community College

Art Department

Figure Model

2020 - 2023

Lancaster River Connections Internship

Lancaster City Department of Public Art

Muralist

2024

AWARDS & GRANTS

Lancaster River Connections Artist Grant

Lancaster Clean Water Fund